“Inventors of the past have come up with some hilarious and downright bonkers ideas for things that use tracks, from zoos to hand-powered bikes and everything in between... Now it's your turn!”

Little Inventors

Year 7 pupils visited the Lit and Phil in town to attend a Little Inventors workshop!

Their challenge was to look into how we can improve the city for its inhabitants. Pupils were given complete creative reign—wild and wacky inventions were encouraged!

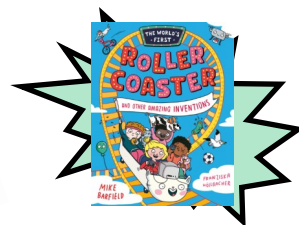

The Little Inventors team expressed the importance of collaboration when coming up with new ideas.

Once pupils had planned their inventions with clear, detailed and annotated illustrations, they were able to move onto the next exciting step—making mini cardboard versions of their inventions!

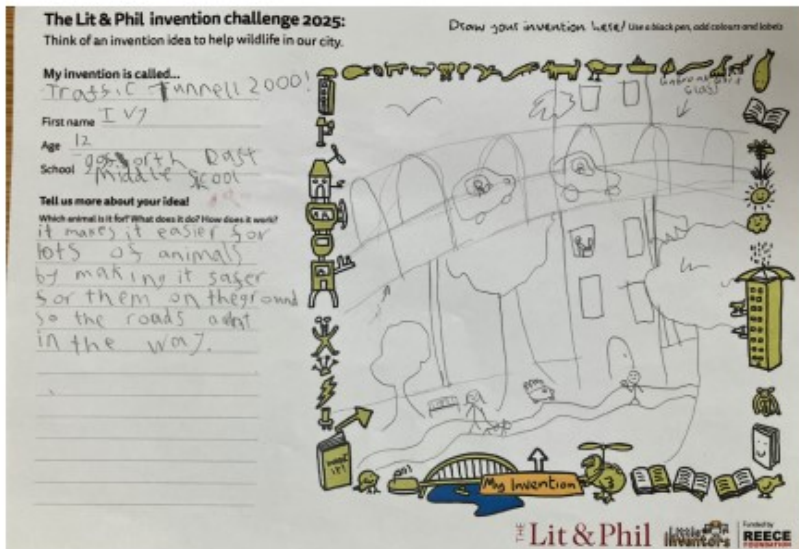

“Congratulations to all children who took part in the Lit & Phil Invention Challenge 2025, Help our Wildlife. We were very impressed with the breadth and depth of ideas in the room, as well as the creative thinking, drawing and making skills of the young people.” Little Inventors Team.

Some very brave pupils shared their inventions with the group.

Reading Recommendations

When Birdie leaves the children's home she grew up in and moves to the countryside, it's clear she's different but everything changes when she finds a pony in the old coal mines. I loved everything about this book! Birdie is a great character, she's like a real person! Some of the language is a bit hard to understand, although I found it ok. FIVE STARS! Lily Y7

This amazing book is by Natasha Farrant, a very talented author. There are two main characters called Skylar and Yakov. They struggle but always get through in the end. I liked how the author phrased certain things and she was so descriptive. I also liked how the characters had emotional backgrounds because it makes it more interesting. It is such a good book. Sophie C

It's war time and Tarn's brother is missing but a mysterious person is doing good deeds. I enjoy people doing good stuff for other people. I wish the book could have been longer!

Drama Club—Movie Recommendation

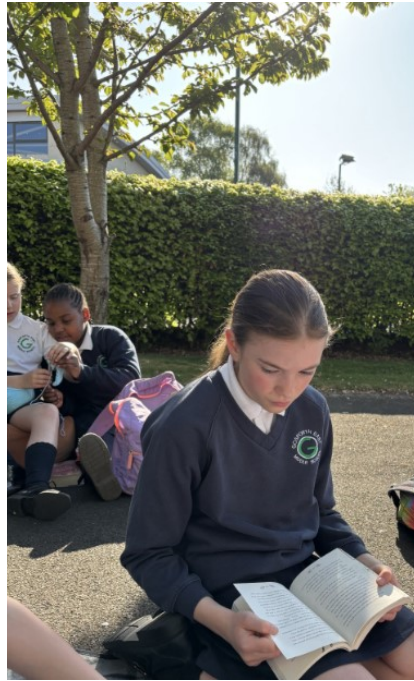

Mufasa was full of plot twists and it was really full of culture. It reminded me of my culture and makes me feel all sorts of things. It is very emotional - I felt happy, sad and angry. My rating is 5 stars. It was soooooo good. Definitely recommend :). By Ayomi Mufasa is an amazing movie! I watched with my Mum, my Dad and my sister, Cora. It's about a young lion called Mufasa who loses his parents in a terrible flood. He floats on a piece of bark down the river and meets another lion cub called Taca. Everything seems fine until the white lions arrive. Taca and Mufasa run and try to get to a beautiful place called Melele. On the way they meet a baboon called Rafiki, a bird called Zazu and a female lion called Sarabi. Taca has a big crush on Sarabi but Sarabi and Mufasa fancy each other. That's when things get rough...

Outdoor Reading

This half term has been super sunny! For cosy club and lunch times, pupils have been sitting outside to read by the pond. They take blankets, the pop up tent and even bean bags.

It was nice to sit outside because you could feel the warmth of the sun and feel the fresh air. Lucy M y5

In Year 6 Book Club

In Year 6 Book Club we have read the brilliant 'When the Sky Falls' by Phil Earle. It follows Joseph as he is sent to live with a formidable new guardian, Mrs F, during World War 2. Joseph is, contrary to what you might expect, relocated to live in London, despite German air raids. This is because Joseph has been acting out since his soldier father was deployed to France, and his grandmother has run out of ideas about how to connect with her grandson and help him channel his anger and sadness. When Joseph and Mrs F first meet, it is a clash of fierce and stubborn personalities. Will Joseph benefit from her mentorship, or is this another relationship set to fail and prove his ideas of himself and others?

Something Joseph could have never imagined becomes his new reality as he must help Mrs F maintain her beleaguered zoo. Joseph's new role sees him mucking out; bartering for food—already in short supply due to the war; and finding a unique and intriguing challenge in caring for the zoo's mercurial silverback gorilla, Adonis.

This book has a fascinating setting, which creates a brilliant backdrop for the story. It has mountains of heart- it will pull you in and make you care so much about the characters- you will feel their emotions viscerally. Phil Earle is a great storyteller. Joseph and Mrs F, living in a time apart from our own, are made so relatable and Earle describes the challenges of the time in devastating detail helping us to empathise deeply. I recommend this book to everyone 9+.

Sporting News

American Football

The year 6 American Flag Football team went to York for the regional finals tournament! They ended up winning and that means they go to the national competition in Leeds. The team played very well together, stuck together as a team and never let their heads drop. It was a great day out and we can't wait for Leeds.

By Joe G and David T

Winners, off to the national finals next. Our students were amazing.

Cricket Tournament

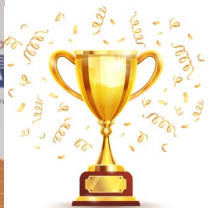

A group of Yr5/6 students visited Benwell Hill Cricket Club with Mr Yeoman and Mr Maloney to take part in a cricket tournament organised by the ECB. The tournament allowed some students to give cricket a go for the very first time alongside others already involved in cricket clubs outside of school. The students played multiple games of quick cricket with a lot of wickets and sixes over the day. Well done to all for a great day!

By Mr Maloney

Pentathlon

Pupils attended a sporty team event at Walker Dome and our team won!

This means that we have qualified to represent Newcastle at the Tyne and Wear finals! The event will take place on the 23rd June at Gateshead International Stadium. A huge congratulations to the amazing team: Olivia R, Abubakr S, Imogen B, Tyra J, Charlie S and Timur G.

Fantastic News!

A huge congratulations to four pupils who have been chosen as best footballers for County Trials! They are: Layton C, Bobby D, Milai R and Harry M. Congratulations!

GEMS Alzheimer's Charity Bike Ride

Alzheimer's is a brain disorder that slowly destroys memory and thinking skills, and eventually, the ability to carry out the simplest tasks. This is why we chose Alzheimer's society as they are a charity dedicated to helping people with dementia stay connected to the life they once lived and stay dignified.

This charity has been chosen as it has a personal interest to us as we have experienced it first hand.

We plan to ride around Kielder Water bike trail 2 times to raise money for Alzheimer's society. In total this ride will be about 50 miles so we will have to do it over 2 days, these 2 days will involve getting there, riding round once, sleeping, riding around for a second time and then go home (so it is non-stop the whole time)

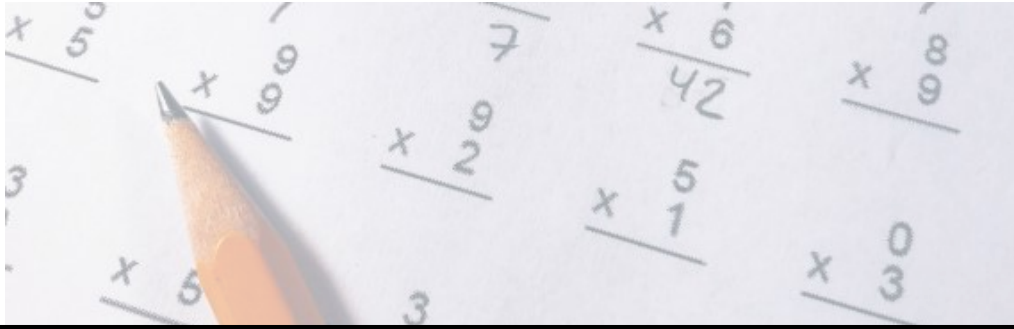

We will be doing this on 22nd and 23rd of June
So you have time to donate

As this is a charity fund we need YOUR donations
You can support us by donating on just giving.
There will be an email sent round to parents/guardians with details and the link to the just giving page and QR code below

THANK YOU from Ethan, Ronnie & James in year 7

THE TIME HAS COME SOUND THE TRUMPETS

(NOT LIKE THERE ARE ANY TRUMPETS)

Anyway, the year 6s should know perfectly well what I'm talking about. I'm talking about SATs. The 3rd week in this 4-week half term (very short) was SATs week. English tests on Monday and Tuesday, Maths tests on Wednesday and Thursday. And on Friday... well, as for Friday, you might as well read my other article if you haven't already. We had been doing SATs revision practically every English lesson, but don't worry—the tests are not really to do with the children—it is mainly for schools.

ALERT CONCLUDED. By Alex I 6ER

After a hard week of completing our SATs tests, we had a brilliant fun day on Friday...

FUN DAY FRIDAY

On 16th May 2025

(expert time-trackers will know that this is the Friday of SATs week*, and therefore a FUN DAY for all of year 6!) we experienced a day like no other. First we watched The Simpsons Movie then we went on a bouncy castle (the bouncy castle could also be used at break and lunch, but only for year 6). The afternoon was whole-year stuff! Year 5s, you will be doing this next year. Year 7s and 8s, you have already done it, so hopefully this will bring up some good memories. By Alex I 6ER

*Read my other articles for more information about the SATs.

However, things don't always go to plan. The ice cream van turned up on time but the machine did not want to give us any ice cream so we had delicious ice lollies instead.

It was great because some of the teachers joined in too. Mrs Watson, Mrs Murphy, Mrs Collister and other teachers attempted the obstacle course and actually did a good job of it. The water fight was amazing too! Mr Robertson braved the rath of Year 6's water guns and was soaked to skin.

We also had a great time playing with our friends on the field. We played rugby, with hula hoops, basketball, did gymnastics, football and sun-bathed on the deck chairs. We were really grateful for all of the fun activities on Friday and we are looking forward to July when we find out our results.

By Megan W, Jacob P and Isaac D 6LW

We had a brilliant fun day.

We were lavished with so many fun activities!

Well DONE!

VE DAY

VE day is a celebration to mark the amazing moment in history when the Second World War ended in Europe , events took place around the UK to celebrate. Street parties, concerts and a military flypast are just some of the ways the country has marked the 80th anniversary of Victory in Europe. At school we celebrated it by having two minutes of silence at twelve o'clock. After nearly six years of war Germany officially surrendered on 7th May 1945 and the conflict was finally over.

Britain's Funniest Class

We'd like to thank all of the people in our school community who took time to vote for our class in Beano's 'Britain's Funniest Class' competition. It wasn't to be this time (and I'll spare you a rant about the transparency of the voting!) but we'll definitely accept the title of one of the funniest classes in Britain! Thanks everyone, from 6NG & Mrs Gill

Cinema Trip Round 2

KS3 missed their initial trip in December because the Gateshead flyover was damaged and the metros weren't running. Luckily, Mrs Donnelly was very kind and organised another cinema trip for KS3 and asked us what we wanted to go and see! We decided on the Minecraft Movie. By Millie

On the 4th April the Minecraft movie became iconic. It took the headlines as soon as it came out! It created lots of memes all over the internet such as the Lava Chicken and the Chicken Jockey!!!
By Sammy

It was funny how everybody clapped during the lines and sang along to Lava Chicken.

Melody Y8

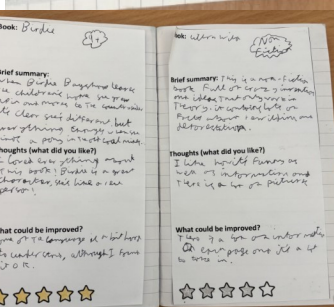

"I liked the Minecraft Movie because it was really funny.
My rating is 4 nothing is perfect :)" Erin

Great North Museum Trip

5SC and 5CF went on a trip to the Great North Museum on Wednesday 21st May. A great day for all with lots to discover! They had the opportunity to see some very well preserved animals through the method of taxidermy up close. There was a fun scavenger hunt and pupils also got to touch fossils and animal bones that were thousands of years old! 5SR, 5NSK and 5KR will get to go in July.

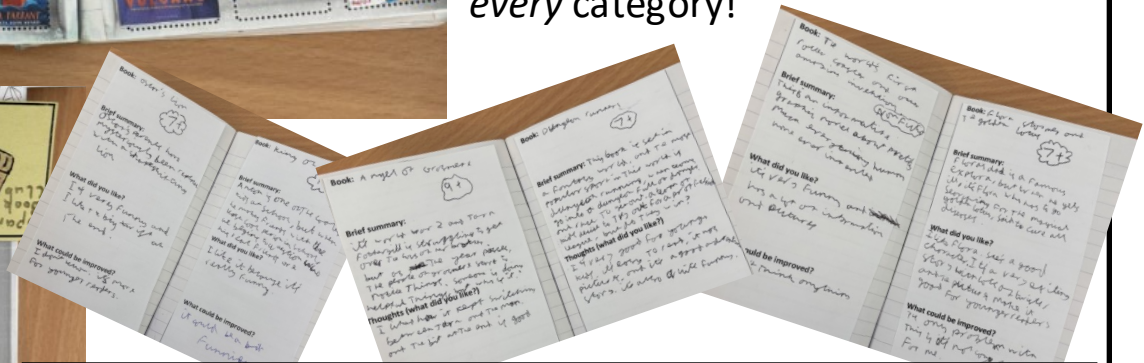

SPARK 5 2025 BOOK CLUB

We meet up on Tuesday's to talk about the awards. Well done Isobel, Abigail, Sahib and Lily who have even earned bookmarks and badges!

Pupils have special books to track their progress and many have already read ALL of the books in every category!

We tweet authors and sometimes they respond! It is very exciting when an author replies to us!

The Crisis Of Climate Change

By Zoe Mokhtary.

DEFORESTATION The loss of trees and other vegetation can cause climate change, desertification, soil erosion, fewer crops, flooding, increased greenhouse gases in the atmosphere, and a host of problems for Indigenous people. Deforestation occurs for a number of reasons.

GLOBAL WARMING Humans and wild animals face new challenges for survival because of climate change. More frequent and intense drought, storms, heat waves, rising sea levels, melting glaciers and warming oceans can directly harm animals, destroy the places they live, and wreak havoc on people's livelihoods and communities.

WILD FIRES

Global temperature increases and severe droughts lead to more forest fires in many regions, which means that some forests that have been effective carbon sinks may become carbon sources.

FLOODING Flooding can erode soil and damage vegetation, vastly altering the natural landscape permanently. Coastal and aquatic habitats can also be damaged by the increased sediments from flooding.

At GEMS we are very eco-conscious.

Take a look at the next article -->

Don't worm your way out of it!

YOUNG
challenge

Key Group—MHT Composting, the team who won the finals of Young Green Briton Challenge for our school and will join all other winning teams from across the country who have been invited to the National Finals which will be held in London!

The team are heading to London on the 1st July.

Since winning, we have started planning on going ahead and building our wormery at school. To do so, we will need to create composting areas in school and build the wormeries using scrap wood from DT.

Then, we plan on selling the compost that we create and reuse old plastic bottles to sell it.

It's a great plan but we need YOUR help too. At lunch times, we will ask you to not bin: fruit peels, vegetables, tea bags, apples (worms LOVE apples), potato skins and eggshells and we will compost them instead. First, we will need to speak to the kitchen staff to come up with a way of doing this in school.

GOT EMPTY BOTTLES AT HOME? PLEASE BRING THEM TO SCHOOL

We also need people to donate empty and clean 2litre plastic bottles.

Ransom Manor Part 5

He's stealing from the manor. That manor is cursed you know.

The yellowish walls leered at me and I felt my head ache with utter pain. I sucked my teeth to stop me from launching myself at the beautiful mahogany bookcase.. At the book? "Grace? Oh, hi Penny. Are you staying for dinner?" Grace's mum, Sylvia, is tall, blonde and pale. Her freckles are almost black that compliment her bright blue eyes. "I want to say yes, I really do. I have to get home though." Oh wait. I ran away, didn't I? "Yeah I'll stay. Do you mind if I sleep over? I know it's a lot to ask." I shuffled my feet and looked down." I have a bag. I kind of ran away." Sylvia looked confused for a second. She sighed and said, "Stay as long as you want."

Grace smiled and showed me to her room. There was a yelling match downstairs between Sylvia and Grace's dad. Grace moaned, "They are always fighting. Then dad does something stupid and leaves for weeks on end, never knowing if he is coming back or not. I dream of running away. Like you." A tear rolled down her cheek.

Sylvia came up, looking more dishevelled than that time at my third birthday party. This time her make up was wishy-washy with mascara dribbling out of her eyes. Her perfect blonde hair looked like she hadn't brushed it in months. Worryingly, her clothes were starting to rip. "Penny, you need to leave. Now." her voice was usually so soft and smooth. Now, she had an awful gravelly voice echoing through the room. "GO!" I stared at her in horror and shock and all the motions just bubbling up and up and up. I ran away. Wiping tears away. I realised that I left my bag at Grace's. I'll just have to sleep at the manor. I'm homeless. Except I inherited a giant manor.
